PROVISIONS FOR DESIGNATING IRREVOCABLE BENEFICIARY

If any beneficiary is designated as "irrevocable", not withstanding any contrary provisions, the consent of all such irrevocable beneficiaries is required before the applicant-owner/proposed Life Insured can exercise any and all other rights and privileges under this Policy.

The rights and interests of the irrevocable beneficiary/ies in the proceeds of the insurance policy immediately vest. The irrevocable beneficiary/ies is/are given equal rights over the policy as the applicant-owner/proposed Life Insured. The applicant-owner/proposed Life Insured cannot exercise any rights in the Policy without the approvals and signatures of all irrevocable beneficiary/ies. Such rights include, but are not limited to, the application of policy loan, withdrawal of any deposit, decrease or deletion of any benefit, change, addition or deletion of the beneficiaries and, policy surrender.

In addition, for minor irrevocable beneficiaries, if the share of each minor irrevocable beneficiary is Php50,000 or less, the Civil Code allows the parents, being the natural guardians, to give consent on the child's behalf. However, if the share is more than Php50,000, the consent given by the minor's parents will have to be supported by a judicial bond. Moreover if the minor no longer has any parents, the consent required must be given by a court-appointed legal guardian who should likewise post a judicial bond.

I/We certify that the above statements, definitions and provisions for the designation of irrevocable beneficiary/ies have been read, understood and accepted.
